A TRIP IN SOUTHERN ARDÈCHE - 2 TO 9 DAY TOUR (1 TO 8 NIGHTS)

DAY A - ARRIVAL

Evening check-in at the hotel . Welcome drink and dinner.

DAY B - GORGES OF THE ARDECH & CHAUVET CAVE OR THE AVENUE D'ORGNAC (100 KM)

You will start by admiring the famous Pont d'Arc and then continue your walk from viewpoint to viewpoint along the gorge road, to discover a 22 km long canyon, shaped for nearly 110 million years by the Ardèche river.

Lunch at the restaurant, then visit to the replica of the fabulous Chauvet cave, dated to 36,000 years ago and containing more than 1,000 prehistoric drawings.

Or, alternatively, a visit to the magnificent Aven d'Ornac site. A veritable underground cathedral that has been developed.

DAY C - THE MARKET PROVENÇAL & THE FORMER DUCHY OF JOY

Driver's day off

Visit Castanea, the Ardèche chestnut discovery center, housed in the former Oratorian college dating from the 17th century, located in the old town of Joyeuse. Then, free morning to stroll around.

at the Provençal market in Joyeuse, the largest in southern Ardèche (Wednesday mornings).

Lunch.

In the afternoon, a very original theatrical tour of this important medieval city which enjoyed great renown during the Renaissance with the Duke of Joyeuse, brother-in-law of King Henry III.

D-DAY GASTRONOMY & TRADITIONS ARDÈCHE RESIDENTS (60 KM)

Departure for Terra Cabra, the Picodon Museum, dedicated to this iconic AOP goat cheese from the Ardèche region, to discover the production and tasting of Picodon cheeses at various stages of maturity. On the return journey, a stop at a winery where you will taste Chatus, a grape variety exclusive to the Ardèche.

Lunch at a restaurant, then a visit to the Mas Daudet in Saint-Alban-Auriolles or House of Ardèche traditions, former farmhouse of Alphonse Daudet's maternal family.

DAY E - VILLAGE OF CHARACTER & VINEYARD ARDÈCHE (80 KM)

Guided tour of Vogüé, a village of character listed among the "Most Beautiful Villages of France"

Villages of France. Overlooking the Ardèche river, nestled against a cliff, the castle of the Lords of Vogüé and its four round towers watch over the village and its amphitheater-shaped streets. Visit to a nougat factory and tasting.

Lunch at a restaurant.

"Neovinum: Dive into the world of Ardèche winemakers"

In the afternoon, enjoy an immersive and sensory experience during a fun and engaging audiovisual show that will take you on a journey through the Ardèche vineyards. Gourmet tasting included.

DAY F - LAVENDER & MEDIEVAL EPIC (105 KM)

Departure for Saint-Remèze to visit La Maison de la Lavande, an estate and museum! You will discover the three different species of lavender and all the secrets of this ancient plant, the still room, and the collection of antique tools. To finish, a ride on the Little Lavender Train through the fields.

Lunch.

In the afternoon, visit the Château des Roure in Labastide-de-Virac, a stronghold on the ancient road to Pont d'Arc, a key site in the Wars of Religion. The 15th and 16th century castle can be visited in its entirety and offers visitors a complete overview of silk, from silkworm breeding to spinning.

D-DAY - THE PLATEAU ARDECHOISE & THE MONT GERBIER-DE-JONC (170 KM)

Departure for Antraigues-sur-Volane, where Jean Ferrat lived, a charming village perched in the mountains with the wild nature that inspired his most beautiful songs. The citadel, fortified by Vauban, still bears important witness to its military splendor.

Lunch on the island.

Return at the end of the day for dinner and an evening of sea shanties.

DAY E - AURAY & TASTING DE CIDRE (140 KM)

Auray awaits you, where the sea waves carry the boats inland, protected by its castle. Ramps have been built on its ruins, offering panoramic views. on the Saint-Goustan site.

Lunch.

Discover an age-old tradition: cider. Immerse yourself in the fascinating world of cider makers, from the origins of the culture. from apple to distillation, including crushing and pressing and all the stages of cider making. Tasting.

Dinner at the hotel at the end of the day.

DAY F - ROCHEFORT-EN-TERRER & THE ÉTEL RIVER (170 KM)

Amidst the moors and woods, Rochefort-en-Terre, perched on a rocky spur, is considered one of the most beautiful villages in France. Everywhere, geraniums and ivy accentuate the stone with their colorful blossoms. Here, every detail is carefully considered. Cobble lanes, stylish signs—the town seems like a little gem nestled in the heart of Morbihan. Look up at the corbelled houses.

From the charming Place du Puits and Rue Saint-Michel, enjoy the atmosphere. In summer, the old town is entirely pedestrianized. A true delight...

Lunch at the hotel.

Cruise on the Étel river, famous for its strong current and its panorama of islets sculpted by wind and tides. A remarkable site. Saint-Cado, its Calvary, its 12th-century chapel, a true postcard scene.

Return at the end of the day for dinner and goodbye.

DAY G - DEPARTURE

DAY B - COLMAR & THE MUSEUM GINGERBREAD (138 KM)

Departure for Colmar : its fountains, its storks, its half-timbered houses and then its geraniums on balconies prove its belonging to Alsace.

Neither wars nor the passage of time have tarnished its image. You will discover the charms of the old town, the House of Heads, the Collegiate Church of Saint Martin, the Pfister House, and of course, Little Venice. Enjoy a tour of this wine capital on a tourist train.

Lunch in Klingenthal (lunch at the hotel).

The day continued with a visit to the Bread Museum Spices and Alsatian Folk Art in Gertwiller, the result of 40 years of collecting by Michel Habsiger. Displayed in the former 18th-century tithe barn over 350 m²

Over 10,000 objects retracing the history of gingerbread and other traditional sweets, as well as all sorts of folk art that accompanied rural life in Alsace. Then a visit to Barr and a stop for a wine tasting from the Bas-Rhin region.

In the early evening, return to the hotel for dinner . video and overnight stay.

DAY C - THE WINE ROUTE (175 KM)

Departure via the wine route towards Ribeauvillé. This former capital of the Ribeauviller family stretches its narrow streets and two- or three-century-old houses at the foot of the Vosges foothills; numerous festivals still punctuate its calendar, notably the Pfefferdaj, which perpetuates the memory of the meetings of the brotherhood of Alsatian musicians around the lords of Ribeauviller since 1481. Continuing our journey towards Riquewihr, the pearl of the vineyards, for lunch.

A walking tour of this Alsatian gem, illustrating the wealth and bourgeoisie of the era. Continue to Kaysersberg, the birthplace of Dr. Schweitzer. This jewel of the Alsatian wine region still retains its medieval character, with its old houses and the ruins of its castle. Enjoy a short walking tour, followed by free time to stroll and soak up the typical Alsatian atmosphere. Opportunities to purchase souvenirs and take photos are also available.

DAY E - HAUT-KOENIGSBOURG & OBERNAI (120 KM)

Departure for the Château du Haut-Koenigsbourg, one of the most visited monuments in France. Built in the 12th century on a strategic position, its purpose was to monitor the routes of wine, wheat, salt and money.

Partly destroyed during the Thirty Years' War, it was restored from 1899 onwards by Emperor Wilhelm II, in total respect for the architecture of the Middle Ages. Inside, the refinement of the rooms is impressive with murals, Renaissance furniture and enormous cast iron stoves.

Lunch at the hotel. After lunch we leave for a self-guided tour of Mont Sainte-Odile, this spiritual promontory evokes the patron saint of Alsace, the monastery founded in the 7th century, destroyed in the Middle Ages then rebuilt by Abbess Herrade of Landsberg who composed there the "Hortus Deliciarum", a kind of Christian encyclopedia.

The day continued with a walk. in Obernai, a delightful fortified town from the Middle Ages. Return to your hotel, dinner, bingo night and overnight stay.

DAY F - LALIQUE MUSEUM & LUNCH SHOW (200 KM)

The Royal Palace , or "the brilliance of crystal and rhinestones!" After breakfast, departure for the visit to the Museum Lalique in Wingen-sur-Moder. The name Lalique evokes dreams. It evokes the sparkle of jewelry, the magic of transparencies, the brilliance of crystal. Before it was a brand, it was the name of a man and artist of genius, René-Jules Lalique, and of his descendants who shared his creative flame. Departure around 11 AM for a lunch show, in a glittering island in the middle of nowhere, in an imaginary world, a dazzling universe of sequins, music, and lights, you will be welcomed to discover the success of an enchanting day.

Return to the hotel, dinner followed by overnight stay.

DAY G - STRASBOURG & ALSACE POTTERIES (166 KM)

After breakfast at the hotel, departure for a visit to Strasbourg, the Alsatian capital. A military post and commercial crossroads, Strasbourg developed during the Middle Ages and experienced its first golden age in the 16th century. century. Its history has been marked by political shifts: long Germanic, then French, Strasbourg is above all a European city. Guided tour of the historic heart, its magnificent cathedral, sculpted like a work of lace, known as the "pink angel," and its astronomical clock. Then Batorama.

Lunch in the town center and some free time for photos and buying postcards or souvenirs. Departure for Soufflenheim to visit the Alsatian pottery workshops.

At the end of the day, return to your hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

You will follow your guide along a specially designed, step-free path, easy and effortless, through the heart of vast galleries that will light up with every step you take...

Lunch at the hotel.

In the afternoon: between the rich lands of Limargues and the desert-like minerality of the causse, you will discover Assier and its magnificent church where the spirit of the Renaissance breathes.

Then Figeac : exploring this restored sub-prefecture is a truly delightful experience. The historic quarter is incredibly rich, as is the story of Jean-François Champollion, who was born there in 1790!

Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY F - THE BASTIDE OF DOMME, THE CASTLE DES MILANDES & THE BARGE CRUISE (140 KM)

A circuit along the Dordogne River, with access by miniature train to the royal bastide of Domme : perched atop its rocky outcrop, the village overlooks the valley.

in an exceptional panorama.

Continue to the Château des Milandes, lunch at the restaurant.

Built in 1489, the castle, former home of Josephine Baker, is remarkable for the exquisite detail of its exterior sculptures. You will be charmed by the moving atmosphere it exudes.

Then continue to La Roque-Gageac for a gabare cruise, a pure moment of serenity on the water, through which you will discover the history of this magnificent region and from where you can admire 5 of the most beautiful castles in the valley.

Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight stay.

DAY G - THE THREE VALLEYS, SAINT-CIRQ- LAPOPIE & THE CAVES OF PECH-MERLE (120 KM)

The Lot, Vers , and Célé Valleys Circuit : Discover the village of Saint-Cirq-Lapopie , perched on a cliff nearly 100 meters above the riverbanks, one of the Lot Valley's major landmarks. The streets, lined with arcaded shops, preserve the memory of the artisanal activities that brought wealth to Saint-Cirq.

Lunch at a restaurant.

Discover the Pech-Merle caves adorned with prehistoric paintings including the famous frieze of dappled horses.

Return to the hotel via Causse.

Stop in Reilhac at the Vigne Haute farm, producer of Rocamadour cheese, tasting.

Dinner featuring regional cuisine and accommodation.

DAY H - DEPARTURE

MAJOR SITES IN OCCITAN LAND - 3 TO 8 DAY TOUR (2 TO 7 NIGHTS)

DAY A - ARRIVAL

Welcome drink, dinner and accommodation at the Occitan.

DAY B - CASTRES, CASTLE OF PLANTS & LUTREC (55 KM)

Guided tour of Castres. Emblematic of the city of Castres, the houses along the Agout River are easily recognizable by their colorful facades. Stroll through the old streets of the city and discover these magnificent Renaissance-style mansions, admire the Bishop's Garden, a French-style garden designed by André Le Nôtre and classified as a "Remarkable Garden." Stop at the carillon of Notre-Dame de la Plâté in Castres: located in the historic center, this carillon has been playing since 1847 and is the only instrument in the South of France that plays every day.

Lunch at L'Occitan.

Afternoon: Departure for Cambounet-sur-le-Sor. In the heart of unspoiled nature, discover the Château des Plantes estate, a family-owned property in the Tarn region, passionately dedicated to the organic cultivation of aromatic plants and reviving forgotten botanical species of the area. Demonstration of pastel dyeing by the master pastel artist.

Return via Lautrec, garlic country

Lautrec, a village classified and labeled "Most Beautiful Village of France", offers charming streets with half-timbered houses, narrow passages, an open-air theatre, the Saint Rémy collegiate church and a covered market hall (15th century).

Dinner and accommodation at the Occitan.

DAY C - ALBI & THE GAILLAC WINES (120 KM)

Morning: Departure for Albi, a UNESCO World Heritage Site: guided tour of Old Albi and its winding streets, passing by beautiful private mansions and typical Albigensian-style houses (including the birthplace).

(Toulouse-Lautrec, Saint-Salvy cloister ...)

Guided tour of Sainte-Cécile Cathedral, an imposing fortress built by the church in the 13th century to demonstrate its power in the aftermath of the Albigensian Crusade. The largest painted cathedral in Europe.

Lunch in Albi.

Afternoon: visit to the Toulouse Lautrec museum: from his early works to his final canvas. More than 1000 works by the artist born in Albi are kept in this place: drawings, paintings, lithographs including all 31 posters he designed.

Free time in the Episcopal City.

Stop at a private vineyard for a tasting of Gaillac wines.

Dinner and accommodation at the Occitan.

D-DAY - THE CANAL OF MIDI & CARCASSONNE (160 KM)

Morning: departure for Castelnaudary. The Canal du Midi: a trip on the Saint Roch riverboat (April to October): departing from Castelnaudary, you will visit the Grand Bassin, the largest body of water between Toulouse and Sète, where the monuments of the old town are reflected. You will sail along the water, in the shade of majestic plane trees lining a towpath.

When passing through a lock, you will discover the friendliness and ancestral gestures of the lock keeper.

Cassoulet lunch in the surrounding area.

Afternoon: departure for the city of Carcassonne which has existed for almost 2500 years. Successively a Roman villa, a medieval viscounty under the Trencavel dynasty, victim of a terrible crusade, destroyed, rebuilt, enlarged and reinforced, abandoned over the centuries, then saved from destruction and finally restored by the major work of Viollet-le-Duc in the 19th century, it was listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1997.

Dinner and accommodation at the Occitan.

DAY E - ROPES & LES BASTIDES (200 KM)

Morning: departure for Cordes-sur-

Ciel (ascent and descent by miniature train), voted "France's Favorite Village 2014". Medieval town at the top of an isolated hill where you can admire local crafts and its 14th-century houses which give it its charm.

Guided tour of the city founded by Raymond VII, Count of Toulouse.

Spit-roasted pig lunch at the Bellevue animal farm.

Afternoon: Departure for the fortified towns of the Albi region. Castelnau-de-Montmiral: A fortified town renowned for being impregnable Middle Ages, Castelnau-de-Montmiral offers an unparalleled view of the Grésigne forest and the mosaic of shapes and colors offered by the fields and hills. This fortified town also holds many other treasures.

Its tangled streets and alleyways invite contemplative strolling.

Puycelsi: classified among the "Most Beautiful Villages of France", Puycelsi was created around the year 1000 by the monks of the Aurillac Abbey. The village has managed to preserve its medieval character. You will discover by chance narrow streets, half-timbered houses, the town's attics and dovecotes, manor houses, commercial houses...

Dinner and accommodation at the Occitan.

DAY F - TOULOUSE (185 KM)

Morning: departure for Toulouse. Visit to Aeroscopia, a space entirely dedicated to aeronautics and its icons (Caravelle, Concorde, Super Guppy and the Airbus A300B), more than 30 historic aircraft.

Lunch in Toulouse.

Afternoon: Guided tour of Toulouse's historic center (the Capitole, the Saint-Sernin Basilica), which also includes a stroll along the inner boulevards. Toulouse owes its nickname "the Pink City" to the use of brick, which adorns its facades in warm colors, from the softest pink to vibrant orange. Once the capital of the Visigoths, and now a leading center for aeronautics and space, Toulouse invites you to discover its two thousand years of history and has many surprises in store!

Dinner and accommodation at the Occitan.

DAY G - HAUTOPOUL, LACAUNE & SIDOBRE (140 KM)

Morning: departure for the medieval village of Hautpoul. Visit the Maison du Bois et du Jouet (House of Wood and Toys) which welcomes you for a fun and interactive presentation of the Montagne Noire (Black Mountain) through the seasons, for an initiatory journey into the world of wood, for a discovery of more than 1200 toys from all over the world, from yesterday and today.

Lunch at L'Occitan.

Afternoon: Lacaune. Visit to the Oberti saltworks: a museum space equipped with old working machines in an environment of

The era. A video will then introduce you to the company's various activities, including the sausage and dry sausage drying rooms, as well as a demonstration of how to carve a bone-in ham. You will then taste a selection of three products: ham, sausage, and dry sausage from Lacaune.

Return via the Sidobre. It's a world apart, an experience that will leave a lasting impression. But in the Sidobre, it's granite we're talking about! Seeing these gigantic boulders defying the laws of gravity, young and old alike will find themselves wondering. What mysteries does the Peyro Clabado (the nailed stone) hold? It weighs nearly 800 tons and miraculously balances on a smaller rock, covering an area of just one square meter!

Dinner and accommodation at the Occitan.

SUBLIME FRENCH RIVIERA - 2 TO 10 DAY TOUR (1 TO 9 NIGHTS)

DAY A - ARRIVAL IN NICE

Cocktail reception with explanations of the stay and its program followed by the distribution of a gift.

Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY B - DREAM GARDENS, MENTON & SAINT-JEAN-CAP-FERRAT (70 KM)

Buffet breakfast followed by a visit to Menton, "the pearl of the French Riviera," where the cultivation of oranges and lemon trees thrives thanks to its abundant sunshine and subtropical climate. Visit the remarkable La Citronneraie du Mas garden, dedicated to preserving the lemon variety that has become the city's emblem. Then, visit the Jean Cocteau wedding hall, where everything in this magnificent room was designed by the master himself. Optional: visit to an exceptional garden.

(for example the Villa Maria Serena, renowned for its rich collection of palm trees, or the Serre de la Madone, a historic garden).

Lunch in a family-run restaurant typical of the region.

On the return journey, along the beautiful Moyenne Corniche with its superb viewpoints, visit the Villa Ephrussi de Rothschild in Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat. After the visit, enjoy tea in the villa's magnificent gardens (additional charge).

Dinner in Nice and overnight stay.

DAY C - ON THE TRAIL FAMOUS PAINTERS (60 KM)

Buffet breakfast followed by a visit to Saint-Paul- de-Vence with its famous pétanque court which has hosted the greatest artists of the 20th century: Matisse, Chagall, Picasso... Visit the fortified village and its 60 galleries and workshops. It is possible to visit the Maeght Foundation for an additional fee.

Lunch, then off to Biot, the town of arts and crafts. Visit to the famous glassworks, then a visit to the Fernand Léger National Museum.

Return to Nice, dinner and overnight stay.

D-DAY - VIVA ITALIA (130 KM)

Buffet breakfast, then off to Italy for the Ventimiglia or San Remo market. Free time to stroll around followed by a visit to the city.

Lunch.

Option 1: Visit Dolceacqua, a magnificent little medieval village with its famous bridge and the Visionarium.

Option 2: Eze village The Eagle's Nest, a medieval village perched between Monaco and Nice. Visit the village on foot and the exotic garden.

Dinner in Nice and overnight stay.

JOUE E - FOLLOW THE STARS (75 KM)

Buffet breakfast followed by a visit to Cannes "The city of stars": the Croisette and its palaces, its Palais des Festivals and its "steps", its luxury shops, the old port and the Suquet district.

Lunch.

Dinner and overnight stay.

DAY G: MONACO, MONTÉ CARLO & CASINO (50 KM)

Buffet breakfast followed by a tour of Monaco. Visit to the Prince's Rock including the cathedral, the narrow streets of old Monaco, the Palace Square and the changing of the guard.

Lunch on site. Visit to the Oceanographic Museum combined with lunch (extra charge) then in Monte Carlo (just opposite, same parking package) discovery of the Formula 1 Grand Prix circuit ... Casino de Paris, the palaces and luxury shops, the dream cars, the Japanese garden.

Back to Nice, dinner and an evening of games (chips included) at the Ruhl casino with a drink

Champagne. Night.

D-DAY - FOLLOW THE TRACES OF FLOWERS (110 KM)

Buffet breakfast.

Option 1: Guided tour of Grasse, the capital of perfume, and a huge perfume factory equipped with very modern laboratories (depending on the season, with an additional charge: workshop to create your own perfume or tour) fields of flowers).

Option 2: Guided tour of Tourrettes-sur-Loup, a medieval village and capital of the violet. Visit its fortified town to discover the secrets of cultivating this flower and recipes made with it; each client will create their own bouquet.

Lunch at a traditional inn followed by a quick visit to Florian's confectionery to witness the transformation of the region's finest fruits and flowers. You'll sample violet candies, rose petal jam, and more.

Then we headed towards the Gorges-du-Loup, a road with limestone walls and waterfalls. Visit to Gourdon (ranked among the most beautiful villages of France) built on a rocky base at an altitude of 760 m, an incomparable panorama.

Return to Nice, dinner and overnight stay.

DAY 1 - ON THE TRAIL DE BB & DE LOUIS DE FUNÈS (240 KM)

Buffet breakfast then departure for Grimaud, visit to the " Venice of Provence ".

Lunch in the heart of Saint-Tropez. The guide will explain the history of the famous Tarte Tropicaine (Brigitte Bardot had something to do with it...) and you'll enjoy it for dessert. Visit Saint-Tropez, its port, the Place des Lices with its pétanque players, and the famous boutique selling authentic sandals.

Tropezian sandals (handmade since 1927). Louis de Funès will meet you at the Gendarmerie Museum before to return to Nice for dinner and overnight stay.

Possibility of a guided tour of a vineyard with a guided tasting of the estate's wines (at an additional cost).

1. INFORMATION

The brochure and the "Circuitgroupes" website concern a range of tours covering the entire year 2026-2027. It is possible, however, that some services may undergo some changes.

If this were the case, the customer would be informed by Circuitgroupes' partner, by written mention on the sales contract before the signing of said contract between the parties concerned.

Through this brochure, Circuitgroupes and its partners

Hotels provide information through which you can request availability at those same hotels.

By requesting a package tour through circuitgroupes.com, you enter into a direct contractual relationship with the hotel concerned by your request. From the moment you submit a tour request, Circuitgroupes acts solely as an intermediary between you and the hotel, forwarding the details of your request to them.

When providing our services, the information we share is based on information provided to us by the hotels. While we strive to provide a quality service, we cannot verify or guarantee that all information is accurate, complete, or correct, and we cannot be held responsible for any errors (obvious mistakes or typographical errors) published in this brochure, any inaccurate, misleading, or erroneous information, or any omissions. Each hotel remains responsible at all times for the accuracy, completeness, and correctness of the (descriptive) information concerning it that is displayed on our website and in our brochure, including its rates and availability. Photos are not contractual.

Our services are available for non-commercial use only. Therefore, you may not resell, use, copy, or reproduce any content or information for any commercial or competitive purpose.

2. PRICE
